

WORKING GROUP MODERATORS

Claudia Schneider studied Political science and Public Management and Governance in Dresden (Germany), Nordhausen (Germany) and Kaunas (Lithuania). After working as a young professional in Laos, she started working for Thüringer Ökoherz. Thüringer Ökoherz is a local NGO that takes a stand for organic farming. There she works as a project manager and coordinates social farming projects.

Elena Luppi is Assistant Professor in Educational Research at the Department of Education of the University of Bologna. She is currently Rector's Delegate for innovation in teaching and learning. She is expert in Lifelong Learning - especially Elderly Education, Intergenerationality and Elderly Care - and in Gender issues, tackling both topics with an interdisciplinary perspective.

Pilar Aramburuzabala is the Director of the Department of Didactics and Theory of Education at the School of Teacher Training and Education of the Autonomous University of Madrid. She is the President of the Spanish University Service-Learning Association and works as an advisor to the Municipal Service-Learning Office of the Madrid City Council. She is Director of the European Observatory of Service-Learning in Higher Education.
